

HB 3195 - DIGEST

Finds that funding was inadvertently provided for construction of a loop rail line in Lewis county that had already been constructed. the legislature also finds that funding should not be provided to projects that are already complete and paid for when the funding can be provided to other projects or activities to meet current needs.