

HB 3318 - DIGEST

Finds that it is in the best interest of unemployed workers, businesses, and the state to maintain a stable and solvent unemployment insurance system.

Declares an intent to make adjustments to benefit and tax equity that ensure both the stability and solvency of the system.