Funding the development of an automated system to process real estate excise taxes.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Creates the real estate excise tax electronic technology account in the custody of the state treasurer. An appropriation is not required for expenditure and the account is not subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW.

Directs the county treasurer to collect an additional five-dollar fee on all taxable transactions required by chapter 82.45 RCW. The county treasurer shall remit this fee to the state treasurer at the same time the county treasurer remits funds to the state under RCW 84.56.280. The state treasurer shall place money from this fee in the real estate excise tax electronic technology account.

Provides that, by the twentieth day of the subsequent month, the state treasurer shall distribute to each county treasurer according to the following formula: Three-quarters of the funds available shall be equally distributed among the thirty-nine counties; and the balance will be ratably distributed among the counties in direct proportion to their population as it relates to the total state's population based on most recent statistics by the office of financial management.

Requires that, when received by the county treasurer, the funds shall be placed in a special real estate excise tax electronic technology fund held by the county treasurer to be used exclusively for the development, implementation, and maintenance of an electronic processing and reporting system for real estate excise tax affidavits. HB 1415-S by House (originally sponsored by Representatives Dickerson, B. Sullivan, Dunshee, Williams, Hunt, Eickmeyer, Chase, Sells and Hasegawa)

Managing impacts of commercial passenger vessels on marine waters.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that large vessels specifically designed for the housing of people upon the seas, unlike vessels designed to transport cargo or petroleum that carry crew as an ancillary function of cargo transport, function primarily as a temporary residential facility, especially while these vessels are stationary at their port of call. The primary function of these vessels is more akin to a floating hotel or a houseboat than it is to a transportation vessel.

Declares an intent to ensure that the blackwater, graywater, and other wastes eventually released by the owners and operators of commercial passenger vessels satisfies the state's standards for protecting the quality of its waters. It is the traditional and long-standing role of the state to ensure that any substances being released into its waters will not, given the unique nature of the state's local waters, adversely impact either the state's economic or environmental interests.

Declares that except as otherwise provided in this act, a person may not, regardless of intent, release sewage sludge, solid waste, biomedical waste, dangerous waste, untreated graywater, or untreated blackwater from a commercial passenger vessel into any waters of the state.

Provides that except as otherwise provided in this act, a person may not, regardless of intent, release oily bilge water into any waters of the state if not in compliance with applicable federal law.

Does not apply to releases made for the purpose of securing the safety of a commercial passenger vessel or saving life at sea if all reasonable precautions have been taken to prevent or minimize the release.

Declares that, except as provided in this act, a person may not release blackwater into waters of the state from a commercial passenger vessel that calls on a public port in Washington unless the owner or operator of the commercial passenger vessel has been approved for blackwater releases by the department for the vessel in question and satisfies the requirements of this act.

Provides that the department shall approve blackwater releases from a commercial passenger vessel if the owner or operator of the commercial passenger vessel: (1) Can demonstrate to the department's satisfaction, based on effluent limits and requirements for sampling and reporting established by the department, that the blackwater to be released from the vessel will receive an adequate level of treatment to protect the quality of the water receiving the release; and

(2) Has paid the mandatory annual operating fee established in this act.

Provides that the owner or operator of a commercial passenger vessel that is operating under the presumption of adequate blackwater treatment granted in this act may only maintain the presumption of adequacy if the owner or operator agrees with the department to do all of the following when the vessel is at least more than one nautical mile from its berth at a public port in Washington and is traveling at least six knots or more: (1) Sample the quality of the treated blackwater released from the commercial passenger vessel while at berth at a Washington public port at least once during each month that the commercial passenger vessel calls on a public port in Washington;

(2) Share all effluent samples with the department, when requested in writing, for all samples taken in waters of the state;

(3) Conduct a whole effluent toxicity test, or WET test, at least once every two years unless the department provides notification in writing that such testing is unnecessary;

(4) Provide the department, when requested in writing, with duplicate results of tests performed on the commercial passenger vessel's wastewater treatment system in other jurisdictions;

(5) Notify the department at least one week before sampling in waters of the state is to occur, and allow department staff to observe the sampling events when requested;

(6) Immediately report to the department any unauthorized discharges;

(7) Allow the department to conduct a minimum of one inspection of the commercial passenger vessel, if requested in writing, to verify the operating conditions of the wastewater treatment system; and

(8) Notify the department if material changes are made to the wastewater treatment system approved under this act.

Requires that, by November 30, 2007, the department shall submit to the appropriate committees of the legislature a report describing how the management and releases of treated blackwater and graywater from commercial passenger vessels under this act are or are not adequate for protecting water quality and public health. At a minimum, the report must make findings as to whether commercial passenger vessels are releasing treated blackwater and graywater in the same locations, and if so, whether the cumulative effects of these releases degrade the water quality in those areas. The report must also address the dilution and dispersion of viruses in the treated blackwater and the impact on shellfish for human consumption.

Provides that for each year from 2005 until 2010, the department shall analyze all water quality data received from commercial passenger vessels and make available to the public, using the agency's web site, by December 31st of each year a report that summarizes all data collected in lay terms.

HB 1467-S by House Committee on Children & Family Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Dickerson, Wallace, P. Sullivan, Kagi, Roberts, Simpson, Appleton, Moeller, Green, Ericks, Takko and Chase)

Requiring mandatory reporting of abuse or neglect of a child when discovered by a person connected with specified nonprofit entities.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Provides that, when any person who is an employee or regular-service volunteer of a nonprofit entity as defined in RCW 84.36.800 has reasonable cause to believe that a child has suffered abuse or neglect, and the alleged perpetrator is an employee, contractor, or volunteer of the same nonprofit entity, he or she shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

Declares that the reporting requirement of this act does not apply to a member of the clergy with regard to information obtained by the member of the clergy in his or her professional character as a religious or spiritual advisor when the information is obtained solely as a result of a confession made pursuant to the clergy-penitent privilege as provided in RCW 5.60.060(3), and the member of the clergy is authorized to hear such confession, and has a duty under the discipline, tenets, doctrine, or custom of his or her church, religious denomination, religious body, spiritual community, or sect to keep the confession secret.

-- 2005 REGULAR SESSION --

- Feb 14 CFS - Majority; 1st substitute bill be substituted, do pass.
Feb 17 Passed to Rules Committee for second reading.

HB 1482-S by House Committee on Children & Family Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Dickerson, Kagi, Simpson, Appleton, Morrell, Ormsby, Moeller, Kenney, McDermott, O'Brien, McIntire and Chase)

Revising provisions on child abuse and neglect.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Declares an intent that the department of social and health services be permitted to intervene in cases of chronic neglect where the well-being of the child is at risk. One incident of neglect may not rise to the level requiring state intervention; however, a pattern of neglect has been shown to cause damage to the health and well-being of the child subject to the neglect.

Declares an intent that when chronic neglect has been found to exist in a family, the legal system reinforce the need for the parent to engage in services that will decrease the likelihood of future neglect. However, if the parents fail to comply with the necessary services, the state must intervene to protect the children who are at risk.

Provides that, in any case in which the court orders that a dependent child may be returned to or remain in the child's home, the in-home placement shall be contingent upon the following: (1) The cooperation by the parents with the agency case plan;

(2) The compliance of the parents with court orders related to the care and supervision of the child; and

(3) The continued participation of the parents in remedial services.

Provides that, if the department, upon investigation of a report that a child has been abused or neglected as defined in chapter 26.44 RCW, determines that the child has been subject to or is at risk of negligent treatment or maltreatment, the department may offer services to the child's parents, guardians, or legal custodians (1) to ameliorate the conditions that endangered the welfare of the child or that place the child at risk of future abuse or neglect, or (2) to address or treat the effects of mistreatment or neglect upon the child.

Provides that if the child's parents, guardians, or legal custodians are available and willing to participate on a voluntary basis in in-home services, and the department determines that in-home services on a voluntary basis are appropriate for the family, the department may offer such services.

Declares that nothing in this act precludes the department from filing a dependency petition as provided in chapter 13.34 RCW if it determines that such action is necessary to protect the child from abuse or neglect or safeguard the child from future abuse or neglect.

Declares that nothing in this act shall be construed to create in any person an entitlement to services or financial assistance in paying for services or to create judicial authority to order the provision of services to any person or family if the services are unavailable or unsuitable or if the child or family is not eligible for such services.

Recognizes that the fiscal and workload impact of this act may not be fully determined until after it is implemented and that such impact may further be affected by the funding or availability of community-based prevention and remedial services. For that reason, the department of social and health services shall report on the implementation of this act to the appropriate legislative committees and the governor by December 1, 2006.
