

SB 5085-S - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Provides that a person who has a current national certification as a child passenger safety technician and who in good faith and not for compensation provides inspection, adjustment, or educational services regarding child passenger restraint systems is not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in providing the services, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct.

Declares that the immunity provided in this act does not apply to a certified child passenger safety technician who is employed by a retailer of child passenger restraint systems and who, during his or her hours of employment and while being compensated, provides inspection, adjustment, or educational services regarding child passenger restraint systems.
