

SB 6505 - DIGEST

Declares it is unlawful for any person to willfully maintain or operate any business knowingly, or under circumstances where one should reasonably know, that drug paraphernalia is displayed or distributed at such business.

Declares it is unlawful for any person who is the owner of a business, an employee thereof, or who works at such business as an agent of the owner, to willfully display or distribute drug paraphernalia at such business knowingly, or under circumstances where one should reasonably know, that it is drug paraphernalia or will be used as such.

Authorizes law enforcement officers to provide verbal or written notification to any person or business that drug paraphernalia is on display or being distributed at the business.
