

SB 6600 - DIGEST

Provides that, for a planning area that is coterminous with an island, is designated entirely for rural uses under RCW 36.70A.070(5), and is located in a county consisting entirely of islands and having a population density greater than one hundred persons per square mile, nothing in this chapter requires a maximum residential density.