2 strike all material through "death" on line 4 of the amendment and
3 insert "the demonstrated ongoing support or interaction of a
4 substantial emotional, psychological, or financial nature within a
5 meaningful relationship of community or companionship existing at
6 or reasonably near the time of the incident causing death"

7 On page 4, beginning on line 6 of the amendment, after "means"
8 strike all material through "death" on line 9 of the amendment and
9 insert "the demonstrated ongoing support or interaction of a
10 substantial emotional, psychological, or financial nature within a
11 meaningful relationship of community or companionship existing at
12 or reasonably near the time of the incident causing death"

13 On page 5, beginning on line 10 of the amendment, after "means"
14 strike all material through "death" on line 13 of the amendment and
15 insert "the demonstrated ongoing support or interaction of a
16 substantial emotional, psychological, or financial nature within a
17 meaningful relationship of community or companionship existing at
18 or reasonably near the time of the incident causing death"

EFFECT: Amends the definition of "significant involvement" to:
(a) require that the emotional, psychological, or financial support be ongoing and substantial; (b) provide that the relationship between the parties must be meaningful and a relationship of "community or companionship"; and (c) limit it to involvement that exists at or reasonably near the time of the incident causing death (the underlying amendment also includes involvement existing at or near the time of the death).
