Once the court receives the petition, it must order a hearing to be held within 14 days of issuing its order. The respondent must be personally served by the local sheriff or law enforcement agency or, if the petitioner prefers, by a private party.

No filing fees may be charged for sexual assault protection order proceedings. The necessary number of certified copies must be provided free of charge. The statutes do not address the sheriff or law enforcement agency charging the petitioner a fee for service of process.

Summary of Bill:

A public agency may not charge filing fees or service of process fees to petitioners seeking relief under a sexual assault protection order. Petitioners must be provided the necessary number of certified copies at no cost.

---

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) This corrects an oversight in the sexual assault protection order bill from last year. Sheriffs can't serve process without charging a fee unless the Legislature authorizes the agency to waive the fee. Victims need to be protected. This is the right public policy. Victims should not have to worry about costs when they need safety.

(Concerns) Previous bills gave municipal courts authority to issue protection orders. District courts already have a process established to process these orders. Allowing municipal courts to do it creates confusion to victims. It should be discretionary for municipal courts to process these orders.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: (In support) Representative Eddy, prime sponsor; Craig Adams, Pierce County Sheriff's Office; and Marcia Magee.

(Concerns) Tammy Fellin, Association of Washington Cities.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
