HB 2048

Brief Description: Modifying the requirements for executing assignment and warranty of title when the purchaser or transferee is a dealer.

Sponsors: Representatives O'Brien, Chandler, Wood, Williams, Moeller, Conway and Condotta.

Brief Summary of Bill

- If a vehicle dealer rejects a vehicle sale or lease contract that contains contingencies under the "bushing" statute, the dealer is not required to make an application for a certificate of title in the purchaser's or lessee's name.

Hearing Date: 2/26/07

Staff: Teresa Berntsen (786-7301).

Background:

Vehicle Dealer Transfer of Title

When selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing of a vehicle, vehicle dealers must promptly make an application to the Department of Licensing (DOL) for a certificate of title in the purchaser's or lessee's name. By Washington Administrative Code, the dealer must file the title application within 45 calendar days of the vehicle delivery date.

Vehicle Dealer Offers to Purchase

If an offer to purchase or lease a vehicle is accepted contingent on securing financing, or on some other factor, the vehicle dealer must give final acceptance or rejection of the offer within three days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays), without further negotiation. If the dealer rejects the agreement, before there can be any attempt to reopen negotiations, the deal must be cancelled and any money, trade-in vehicle, or anything else given as initial payment or security must be returned.

Failure to adhere to the three-day limit to accept or reject an agreement to purchase or lease a vehicle is often referred to as "bushing."

Summary of Bill:

If a vehicle dealer rejects a contract that contains contingencies under the "bushing" law, the dealer is not required to make an application to the Department of Licensing for a certificate of title in the purchaser's or lessee's name.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on February 25, 2007.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.
