The Department of Licensing (DOL) issues special vehicle license plates that may be used in lieu of standard plates. A governmental or nonprofit organization seeking to sponsor a special plate either makes application with the Special License Plate Review Board or requests legislation to create the special plate. Generally, the organization seeking to sponsor the special plate is required to reimburse the DOL for the costs of establishing the new special plate. There is a moratorium on the issuance of new special license plates until June 30, 2009.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

The DOL may issue special license plates to the parents of a member of the United States armed forces who was killed in combat, as certified by the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA). The DOL may not charge a fee above the standard license plate fee. The special license plate is exempt from the requirement that DOL be reimbursed for costs associated with establishing the new special plate and the moratorium on the issuance of new special plates.

Currently 81 members of the military from Washington have lost their lives in Iraq and 11 in Afghanistan. Thirteen other states have enacted similar license plates.
