Brief Summary of Substitute Bill

- Establishes an internship program at the Washington State Department of Transportation for returning wounded combat veterans.

Hearing Date: 3/28/07

Staff: Jeff Olsen (786-7157).

Background:

The Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) has recently implemented a program to assist wounded veterans in transitioning military skills into civilian careers. The VDOT's Wounded Veteran Internship Program is designed to provide veterans with full-time temporary positions that match their military skills, or teach them new skills. The VDOT's program is able to take advantage of the similarity between transportation jobs that require skills common to military personnel, such as mapping, planning, procurement, and quality control. Positions are for six months to two years and may result in permanent placement with the VDOT or other businesses that work with the VDOT.

Summary of Bill:

The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) must establish an internship program for returning wounded combat veterans. Positions may include, but are not limited to engineering, construction trades, logistics, and project planning. The emphasis of the program should be to assist veterans who served in southern or central Asia (Operation Enduring Freedom) and the Persian Gulf (Operation Iraqi Freedom). The WSDOT may adopt rules to implement this
