Senate Committee on Early Learning & K-12 Education
House Committee on Early Learning & Children's Services

Background: The Department of Early Learning (DEL) was established in 2006 as an executive branch agency, and chapter 43.215 for DEL was added to the Revised Code of Washington. The primary duties of DEL are to implement early learning policy and to coordinate, consolidate, and integrate child care and early learning programs in order to administer programs and funds efficiently. Various powers, duties, and functions within the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) were transferred to DEL; however, some of the related authorities were not replicated in chapter 43.215 RCW.

Summary: DEL is authorized to charge agencies fees for licenses, but the Director may waive fees when they are not in the best interest of public health and safety or are a financial disadvantage to the state. The fees must be established by rule and based on the cost to DEL.

DEL is authorized to deny, suspend, revoke, modify, or not renew a license or assess a civil monetary penalty when an agency has failed or refused to comply with the licensing requirements. DEL must give written notice of a license denial, revocation, suspension, or modification. The action will take effect 28 days after notice is received, or longer if indicated by DEL. Action may occur sooner than 28 days if it is necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare. License suspension is effective immediately upon notice when the agency is not in compliance with a child support order. An agency has the right to request in writing an adjudicative proceeding within 28 days of receiving notice. If the appeal is filed before the effective date, DEL must not take action before a final order is entered. However, when DEL gives less than 28 days' notice, action may be taken on the effective date stated in the notice.

DEL also must give an agency written notice of a civil fine. The fine is due within 28 days of receiving notice, unless DEL indicates a later date. The agency has a right to request in writing an adjudicative proceeding within 28 days of receiving notice. If the appeal is timely and sufficient, DEL must not take action before a final order is entered.

The Washington State Patrol must provide DEL with conviction records upon written request. DEL is included in the list of state agencies that may authorize access to individually identifiable personal records for research purposes.

DEL's authority to create local child care resource and referral organizations is recodified in chapter 43.215 RCW. One of the two statutes requiring licensed day care centers to provide notice of pesticide use is repealed.

The responsibility to certify a safe passenger loading area at a family day care provider's home facility is transferred from the Office of Child Care Policy to DEL.

The power to engage in negotiated rule making with the exclusive representative of the family child care licensees is transferred from the Secretary of DSHS to the Director of DEL. Additionally, the statute establishing the exclusive representative of family child care licensees was repealed and amended under chapter 43.215 RCW.
