Background: The Department of Licensing (DOL) issues special vehicle license plates that can be used in lieu of standard plates.

The DOL issues armed forces special license plates, which are a series of six plates that contain a symbol representing different branches of the armed forces. The special plates are available only to veterans, active duty military personnel, reservists, members of the Washington National Guard, and spouses of deceased veterans. The charge is $40 above the standard licensing fee for initial issuance, and $30 above the standard fee for renewal. The DOL also issues decals free of charge to be placed on a license plate indicating the purchaser's military status.

Proceeds from the sale of the armed forces license plates are deposited into the Veterans Stewardship Account (account). The Washington State Department of Veteran's Affairs (DVA) may also accept grants and gifts to deposit into the account. The account must be used by the DVA for activities that benefit veterans.

The DOL issues former prisoner of war special license plates free of charge to veterans who were held captive during a period of war for more than 29 days.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Summary of Bill: References to Washington are deleted when referring to the National Guard special license plate, expanding eligibility to include the National Guard of any state.

In addition to spouses, other family members of living or deceased veterans and current service members may purchase an armed forces special license plate and receive a decal.

The eligibility criteria to receive a prisoner of war special license plate is changed from a veteran who was held captive during a period of war for more than 29 days to a veteran that was held captive and received a prisoner of war medal.

In addition to veterans, families of veterans may receive funds from the account through the DVA.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: Any time in captivity is too long, so there should be no minimum requirement. We should honor those who have sacrificed for the freedoms we all enjoy.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Claudia White, Port Orchard; Alfio Alvarado, Deputy Director, Department of Veterans Affairs.
