SENATE COMMITTEE ON EARLY LEARNING & K-12 EDUCATION

Majority Report: That Substitute Senate Bill No. 6879 be substituted therefor, and the substitute bill do pass.

Signed by Senators McAuliffe, Chair; Tom, Vice Chair; King, Ranking Minority Member; Eide, Hobbs, Holmquist, McDermott, Oemig, Weinstein and Zarelli.

Staff: Susan Mielke (786-7422)

Background: In 2007 the Legislature created the Joint Task Force on Basic Education Finance (task force), which was directed to review the definition of basic education and the current basic education funding formulas, develop options for a new funding structure and all necessary formulas, and propose a new definition of basic education.

The Washington Institution for Public Policy supports the task force and was required to provide three reports to the task force:

- 1) an initial report by September 15, 2007, proposing an initial plan of action, reporting dates, and timelines;
- 2) a second report by December 1, 2007, with at least two but not more than four options for allocating school employee compensation; and
- 3) a final report by September 15, 2008, with at least two but no more than four options for revising the remaining K-12 funding structure, a timeline for phasing in the full adoption of the new funding structure, and a projection of the expected effect of the investment made under the new funding structure.

There was no date provided for the completion of the work of the task force.

Summary of Bill (Recommended Substitute): The task force must specifically consider equalizing salary allocations. By December 1, 2008, the task force must report the options developed for a new funding structure and all necessary formulas, and propose a new definition of basic education.

EFFECT OF CHANGES MADE BY EARLY LEARNING & K-12 EDUCATION COMMITTEE (Recommended Substitute): A task force report to the Legislature is specifically required by December 1, 2008. The task force must specifically consider equalizing salary allocations.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony on Original Bill: PRO: It is important that the task force have a date for when their work will be due to ensure the completion of the task assigned. The date provides a target for completion and emphasizes the urgency for the task to be accomplished. This date is appropriate since it permits the information to be available for consideration by the Governor when developing the Governor's budget and by the Legislature during the next legislative session.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Linda Hanson, Washington State PTA; Bill Freund, Washington Education Association; Mitch Denning Alliance of Education Associations; Barbara Mertens, Washington Association of School Administrators; Dan Steele, Washington State School Directors Association.
