
HOUSE BILL 1382

State of Washington

60th Legislature

2007 Regular Session

By Representatives Ericks, Hunter, Orcutt, McIntire and Condotta; by request of Department of Revenue

Read first time 01/18/2007. Referred to Committee on Finance.

1 AN ACT Relating to the excise taxation of sales of tangible
2 personal property originating from or destined to foreign countries;
3 adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding a new section to 4 chapter 82.08 RCW; and creating a new section.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Because of the uncertainty regarding the 7 constitutional limitations on the taxation of import and export sales 8 of tangible personal property, the legislature recognizes the need to 9 provide clarity in the taxation of imports and exports. It is the 10 legislature's intent to provide a statutory tax exemption for the sale 11 of tangible personal property in import or export commerce, which is 12 not dependent on future interpretation of the constitutional 13 limitations on the taxation of imports and exports by the courts. The 14 sole purpose of the legislature in enacting sections 2 and 3 of this 15 act is to codify current department practice in the taxation of import
16 and export sales of tangible personal property consistent with WAC
17 458-20-193C. It is not the intent of the legislature in enacting 18 sections 2 and 3 of this act to eliminate, narrow, or expand existing 19 exemptions under WAC 458-20-193C.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW
2 to read as follows:

3 (1) This chapter does not apply to the sale of tangible personal 4 property in import or export commerce.

5 (2) Tangible personal property is in import commerce while the 6 property is in the process of import transportation. Except as 7 provided in (a) through (c) of this subsection, property is in the 8 process of import transportation from the time the property begins its 9 transportation at a point outside of the United States until the time 10 that the property is delivered to the buyer in this state. Property is 11 also in the process of import transportation if it is merely flowing 12 through this state on its way to a destination in some other state or 13 country. However, property is no longer in the process of import 14 transportation when the property is:

15 (a) Put to actual use in any state, territory, or possession of the 16 United States for any purpose;

17 (b) Resold by the importer or any other person after the property
18 has arrived in this state or any other state, territory, or possession 19 of the United States, regardless of whether the property is in its 20 original unbroken package or container; or

21 (c) Processed, handled, or otherwise stopped in transit for a
22 business purpose other than shipping needs, if the processing, handling
23 or other stoppage of transit occurs within the United States, including 24 any of its possessions or territories, or the territorial waters of 25 this state or any other state, regardless of whether the processing, 26 handling, or other stoppage of transit occurs within a foreign trade 27 zone.

28 (3)(a) Tangible personal property is in export commerce when the 29 seller delivers the property to:

30 (i) The buyer at a destination in a foreign country;

31 (ii) A carrier consigned to and for transportation to a destination
32 in a foreign country;

33 (iii) The buyer at shipside or aboard the buyer's vessel or other 34 vehicle of transportation under circumstances where it is clear that 35 the process of exportation of the property has begun; or

36 (iv) The buyer in this state if the property is capable of being 37 transported to a foreign destination under its own power, the seller
38 files a shipper's export declaration with respect to the property

1 listing the seller as the exporter, and the buyer immediately
2 transports the property directly to a destination in a foreign country.
3 This subsection (3)(a)(iv) does not apply to sales of motor vehicles as 4 defined in RCW 46.04.320.

5 (b) The exemption under this subsection (3) applies with respect to 6 property delivered to the buyer in this state if, at the time of 7 delivery, there is a certainty of export, and the process of export has 8 begun. The process of exportation will not be deemed to have begun if 9 the property is merely in storage awaiting shipment, even though there 10 is reasonable certainty that the property will be exported. The 11 intention to export, as evidenced for example, by financial and 12 contractual relationships does not indicate certainty of export. The 13 process of exportation begins when the property starts its final and 14 certain continuous movement to a destination in a foreign country.

15 (4) Persons claiming an exemption under this section must keep and 16 maintain records for the period required by RCW 82.32.070 establishing 17 their right to the exemption.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 82.08 RCW
19 to read as follows:

20 The tax imposed by RCW 82.08.020 does not apply to sales of 21 tangible personal property if the sale is exempt from business and 22 occupation tax under section 2 of this act.
