State of Washington 60th Legislature 2007 Regular Session

By Representatives Roach, Dunn, Williams, Blake, Strow, McCune,
Haler, Moeller and Takko

Read first time 01/24/2007. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to protecting the constitutionally guaranteed right
2 to the lawful possession of firearms during an emergency; amending RCW
3 43.06.220; and creating a new section.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes that: (a)
6 The United States Constitution, amendment II, guarantees that, "A 7 well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, 8 the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed";
9 (b) the Washington state Constitution, article I, section 24, 10 guarantees that, "The right of the individual citizen to bear arms in 11 defense of himself, or the state, shall not be impaired..."; (c) the 12 constitutionally protected right to bear arms is an individual right 13 intended to ensure that society and law-abiding persons remain
14 protected from criminal aggressors within their homes, neighborhoods,
15 and communities; (d) law-abiding citizens who are attacked in a place 16 where they have a right to be have no duty to retreat and have the 17 right to stand their ground and meet force with defensive force, 18 including deadly force in certain circumstances; (e) law-abiding 19 persons must be able to protect themselves, their families, and others

1 from criminal intruders and attackers without fear of prosecution for 2 acting in the lawful defense of themselves, their families, and others;
3 and (f) law-abiding citizens should not be required to surrender their 4 constitutional right to bear arms and thereby surrender their personal 5 safety and well-being to criminal aggressors at any time, but 6 especially during a state of emergency when law and order is at a much 7 higher risk of breaking down, law enforcement resources are frequently 8 strapped, and criminal predators are much more free to prey on those 9 unable to adequately protect themselves and their families.

10 (2) It is the intent of the legislature that, during the 11 continuance of any proclaimed state of emergency, no person who is not 12 otherwise prohibited by law from the possession, transfer, sale, 13 transport, storage, display, or use of firearms or ammunition shall be 14 prohibited or restricted by either the governor or any governmental
