

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.2007-4605, by Representatives Rolfes, Conway, Skinner, Hankins and Dunn

WHEREAS, The people of the State of Washington celebrate children for the happiness they bring to our lives and the hopes and dreams they represent for our nation; and

WHEREAS, Children are the citizens of tomorrow and it is our solemn obligation to instill in them the values, convictions, goodwill, and fortitude they need to continue the wonderful legacy of freedom, peace, and prosperity we have inherited from those who came before us; and

WHEREAS, There can be no better measure of our governance than the way we treat our children; and

WHEREAS, The children of the State of Washington should be cherished and are deserving of a nurturing and protective environment where they may flourish and realize their full potential; and

WHEREAS, The children of the State of Washington should always know that they are valued members of our society; and

WHEREAS, The children of the State of Washington should have access to quality education, wholesome recreation, and safe communities; and

WHEREAS, Children should be loved and treasured by their families, and all people of the State of Washington should help them by setting examples of what it means to be an ethical, hardworking, healthy, and productive citizen; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives welcomes children into the House Chamber for a special day each session so they may witness the legislative process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives encourage all citizens of Washington to celebrate children on Children's Day and throughout the year by spending more quality time with children, and reminding children of their special place in our lives.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4605 adopted by the House of Representatives
January 15, 2007

---

Richard Nafziger, Chief Clerk