

HB 1354 - DIGEST

Declares an intent to offer a low-interest loan program with affordable and manageable repayment options to financially needy higher education students.

Requires the board to begin developing the program no later than July 1, 2007, and issue the first student loans no later than January 14, 2008.