

HB 1442 - DIGEST

Requires the state building code council to develop a model pricing plan for private residential fire sprinkler water charges by December 1, 2007. The council must survey other states during the development process and make the supporting data available to local jurisdictions upon request.