

HB 1690 - DIGEST

Requires every insurer that changes its name, whether it is a trade name or legal name, to send a written notification to all affected policyholders about the name change. The notification must be sent by certified mail or other means requiring proof of delivery.