

HB 1781 - DIGEST

Declares that the requirement to include best available science under RCW 36.70A.172 is satisfied if buffers in a critical area ordinance are within the range of buffers previously adopted and established by any local government based on best available science for the same category or type of critical area.