

HB 1789 - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Requires the pollution liability insurance agency to identify design criteria for heating oil tanks that provide superior protection against future leaks as compared to standard steel tank designs. Any tank designs identified under this act must either be constructed with fiberglass or offer at least an equivalent level of protection against leaks as a standard fiberglass design.