

HB 2071 - DIGEST

Designates Hood Canal as the state's first aquatic rehabilitation zone, allowing its unique challenges and features to be addressed individually.

Declares that one-half of the fishery reserved to its nontribal residents is to be used for the conservation and rehabilitation of the overall marine ecosystem of aquatic rehabilitation zone one.