

HB 2249 - DIGEST

Provides that, for shorelines of the state located on inhabited islands within Puget Sound, a county master program may prohibit completely or may limit the intensity of mining uses and associated activities, including the transportation of materials from the mining site, to a level that is commercially significant considering the market for the materials on the island.