

HB 2257 - DIGEST

Provides that, in order for the legislature to deliberate the fiscal performance processes of the department of social and health services, and allow the public the opportunity to comment, there is created in the legislature a joint committee for audit review of the department of social and health services.