

HB 2429 - DIGEST

Calls for the department of health to convene and chair a work group to study policies, strategies, and alternatives related to the roadside application of pesticides.

Proposes that the work group make recommendations to the legislature on practical and cost-effective opportunities to reduce or eliminate the roadside application of pesticides in Washington.