

HB 2503 - DIGEST

Provides that when a local law enforcement agency or official is unable to classify an offender from another state due to insufficient information, the local law enforcement agency or official shall initially classify the offender at risk level II.

Provides that this act does not affect the local law enforcement agency's or official's authority to subsequently reclassify the offender at a different risk level.