

HB 2735 - DIGEST

For the purposes of unemployment compensation and industrial insurance, the term "employment" shall not include services performed by a language translator or interpreter that are provided for others through an agent or broker.