

HB 2787 - DIGEST

Establishes the Washington interoperability office, headed by the Washington interoperability coordinator, in the executive office of the governor for the purpose of establishing an interoperable, statewide radio communications system.