

HB 3000 - DIGEST

Provides that for purposes of the business and occupation tax, there may be deducted from the measure of tax, amounts paid to or on behalf of employees as financial incentives for physical fitness services. Employers must provide the financial incentives to their own employees.