

HB 3280 - DIGEST

Creates a uniform interest rate, meaning an interest rate that is calculated for financial obligations annually each December, at the rate of two percentage points above the equivalent coupon yield, based on the previous six months average auction rate for twenty-six week treasury bills.