

HB 3327 - DIGEST

Provides a city with a population of more than five hundred thousand persons may not adopt an ordinance that places a substantially equivalent tax burden on the taxpayer, such as a square footage tax that imposes a business and occupation tax that contradicts the legislative intent of promoting uniformity and fairness among municipal business and occupation taxes.