

HB 3343 - DIGEST

Declares that it is the goal of the legislature that new state construction projects or state construction projects that are considered substantial redevelopment adhere to the 65/10/0 project design standard and will not significantly harm the aquatic environment and anadromous fisheries.

Provides that in order to accomplish the intent of this act, all new state construction projects or state construction projects that are considered substantial redevelopment must meet certain criteria, including design standards.