

SB 5300 - DIGEST

Provides that, to ensure the health and well-being of employees, when an employer pays for an employee's airline flight, the employer shall ensure that the employee's seat on the flight meets health and safety standards for airline seats, as established by the department of labor and industries.