

SB 6292 - DIGEST

Requires licensing of craft distilleries.

Declares "craft distillery" is defined as an establishment that produces within Washington twenty thousand gallons or less of spirits per year using a pot still and in which more than fifty percent of the raw materials used in the production are grown in Washington.