

SB 6697 - DIGEST

Requires a person registered as a facilitator to establish policies and procedures to ensure a retailer who is acting as a distributor and collector of information or materials: (1) Appropriately safeguards and protects an applicant's personal private financial information; and
(2) Acts solely in a clerical role and does not provide any counseling regarding refund anticipation loan products.