EFFECT: Changes financial aid funding at the Higher Education Coordinating Board. Provides funding for tuition increases for Washington residents attending private in-state colleges and universities in both the State Need Grant program and the State Work Study program. Provides funding for 100 percent of the Washington Scholars award, versus 90 percent. Reduces student eligibility for the State Need Grant from those with up to 70 percent of the state median family income to those with up to 65 percent of the state median family income. Provides 69 percent of the maximum State Need Grant award to eligible students with family incomes between 56 and 60 percent of the state median family income instead of 65 percent of the maximum award.

FISCAL IMPACT: Reduces General Fund-State by $8,000.
