3 following:

5 "Recognizing that family child care providers have been granted the 6 ability to collectively bargain with the state to improve standards in 7 their profession and to expand opportunities for educational 8 advancement to ensure continuous quality improvement in the delivery
9 of early learning services, it has been suggested that the legislature 10 grant similar bargaining rights to child care center directors and 11 workers. However, because of current economic realities, it is 12 difficult to award such rights before thoroughly studying whether this 13 will, in fact, improve the working conditions of child care center
14 directors and workers.

15 The legislature intends, therefore, to study the effects of the 16 family child care provider system and whether providing equivalent 17 collective bargaining opportunities to child care center directors and 18 workers will lead to better training and opportunities for child care 19 workers and better early learning opportunities for the children in 20 their care. The legislature further intends that the results of this 21 study be delivered to a joint legislative task force which will 22 investigate methods to raise the subsidy through legislation.

23
24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The department of early learning must 25 study issues relating to increasing the child care subsidy and 26 reimbursement rates for child care centers licensed under chapter 27 43.125 RCW. The study must:

1 (a) Include a review of the results of the collective bargaining
2 provided to family child care providers. This must include whether 3 this has resulted in increased economic compensation, health and 4 welfare benefits, professional development and training, and other
5 economic matters to these providers;

6 (b) Be made in consultation with child care center directors and 7 workers as well as other interested stakeholders. Directors and 8 workers must be consulted in several areas of the state, including 9 centers located in eastern Washington and western Washington;

10 (c) Review alternative methods of raising the child care subsidy
11 rate;

12 (d) Review alternative methods to provide training to child care
13 center directors and workers;

14 (e) Review methods to retain child care center workers and 15 otherwise reduce employee turnover; and

16 (f) Include other items the department determines necessary to 17 study in order to increase educational opportunities for children in 18 child care centers.

19 (2) The study required under this subsection must be completed by 20 August 1, 2010, and delivered to the joint legislative task force on 21 child care center subsidy and reimbursement rates established in 22 section 3 of this act.

23 (3) This section expires December 31, 2010.

24

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The joint legislative task force on child
26 care center subsidy and reimbursement rates is established. The task 27 force shall consist of the following members:

28 (a) The chair and the ranking minority member of the senate labor,
29 commerce and consumer protection committee;

30 (b) The chair and the ranking minority member of the house of 31 representatives commerce and labor committee;

32 (c) Up to eight members appointed jointly by the president of the 33 senate and the speaker of the house of representatives that represent 34 child care centers. These members must include representatives of

1 businesses that own and operate ten or more child care centers;
2 representatives of local nonprofit organizations whose primary mission
3 is to provide social services, such as the YMCA and the YWCA; and 4 representatives of child care centers such as the Washington
5 federation of independent schools, child care consulting, the 6 Washington education association, the American federation of teachers; 7 and the service employees international union; and

8 (d) The director of the department of early learning, or the 9 director's designee.

10 (2) The task force must review the results of the study conducted 11 under section 2 of this act and must develop proposed legislation that 12 is intended to increase the child care subsidy and reimbursement
13 rates. In developing proposed legislation, the task force must 14 consider previous legislative attempts to raise the subsidy rate 15 including SB 5506, which was proposed during the 2009 legislative 16 session.

17 (3) The task force must submit its proposed legislation to the 18 senate labor commerce and consumer protection committee, the senate
19 early learning and K-12 education committee, the house of 20 representatives commerce and labor committee, and the house of 21 representatives early learning and children's services committee by 22 December 1, 2011.

23 (4) This section expires December 31, 2011."
