ADOPTED AND ENGROSSED 4/12/10

2 following:

3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that in times of 4 severe economic recession, the state has a special obligation to help
5 unemployed and low-income citizens access the training and education
6 necessary to help them find and keep living wage jobs. The legislature 7 also finds that during times of recession, when state revenues are at 8 their lowest, demand for education and training are at their highest,
9 making it especially important for the legislature to set clear goals
10 and make the most efficient use of limited state resources.

11 (2) The legislature therefore intends to expand training and 12 education programs, which have proven to be successful, to help
13 Washington citizens receive the training they need. These programs 14 include the worker retraining program, the opportunity grant program, 15 and the opportunity internship program. The legislature further 16 intends to create more effective intake and outreach systems to reach 17 the greatest number of citizens and connect them to the resources they 18 need, including college, apprenticeship, and preapprenticeship.
