4 to read as follows:

5 If a county has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and 6 obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under this 7 chapter and is operating a public transportation system, then the 8 governance of the public transportation system must include one
9 nonvoting member. The nonvoting member is recommended by the labor
10 organization representing the majority of the public transportation
11 employees within the public transportation system. The nonvoting
12 member is appointed for a term of four years. The nonvoting member 13 may be excluded from attending any executive session held for the 14 purpose of discussing negotiations with labor organizations or from 15 attending any other executive session."
