HOUSE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT & TRIBAL AFFAIRS

Signed by 7 members: Representatives Hunt, Chair; Appleton, Vice Chair; Armstrong, Ranking Minority Member; Alexander, Flannigan, Hurst and Miloscia.

Staff: Tracey O'Brien (786-7196)

Background:

A rule or regulation is a written policy or procedure by a state agency that is generally applicable to a group of people, industries, activities, or circumstances. Rules are adopted by an agency through a process mandated by the Washington Administrative Procedures Act (APA). The APA sets out exactly what steps an agency must follow to adopt rules. When an agency believes it has developed a final rule proposal, it publishes a notice of proposed rule-making and schedules a public hearing. At the public hearing, interested parties can make comments about the proposal. Written comments can also be submitted.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

During a rule-making hearing, all interested parties shall have the opportunity to comment individually. All comments by all persons shall be done orally in the presence and hearing of all other hearing attendees.

Substitute Bill Compared to Original Bill:

The substitute bill amends the APA instead of the Open Public Meeting Act (OPMA). The substitute bill also removes the requirement that all meetings under the OPMA, except executive sessions, be recorded or documented.

---

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date of Substitute Bill: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Several agencies have been employing a method to get public input that might be technically correct, but does not provide a meaningful interaction for the public. In order to provide input on proposed rules, the public is being forced to use information booths and kiosks. This method does not allow for public testimony or question and answer periods. It also prevents the public from hearing other's comments. This is not a transparent and meaningful process. This bill seeks to accommodate public comment in a real way.

Persons Testifying: Representative Kretz, prime sponsor; and Paul Telford.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
