The assessment for the dairy inspection program was first approved in 1992. The assessment rate is capped at $0.0054 per 100 pounds of milk. The assessment is set in rule by the WSDA and is $0.00535 per 100 pounds of milk. The assessment is collected by the WSDA. Funds collected from the assessment are deposited in the Dairy Inspection Account of the Agricultural Local Account. Funds may only be used for dairy industry inspection services. Authority to collect the assessment expires June 30, 2010.

Summary of Bill:

The expiration date of the dairy inspection assessment is extended from June 30, 2010, to June 30, 2015.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) The extension will also ask the WSDA to continue existing programs related to dairy inspections. The assessment was originally established in 1993 in consultation with the dairy industry. This will be the third extension of the assessment. Before each extension request, the WSDA meets with the dairy industry to see whether there is still a need to maintain the assessment or not. The dairy inspection program has two missions. One to protect public health and another to assist the dairy industry to market dairy products. The dairy inspection assessment is a collaborative effort with producers and processors; the Industry supports the WSDA so they can maintain a set of inspectors for dairy products.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Representative Blake, prime sponsor; Jeff Canaan and Claudia Coles, Washington State Department of Agriculture; Antone Mickelson, Darigold; and Jay Gordon, Washington State Dairy Federation.
