27 as follows:

28 (1) The director shall make an examination and investigation into 29 the affairs of each credit union at least once every eighteen months, 30 unless the director determines with respect to a credit union, that a

32 financial stability of the credit union and will satisfactorily assure 33 compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

34 (2) In regard to credit unions, and out-of-state and foreign credit
35 unions permitted to operate a branch in Washington pursuant to RCW

9 other financial institution. The director may accept all or part of 10 such a report in lieu of all or part of an examination. The accepted 11 report or accepted part of the report has the same force and effect as 12 an examination under this section.

13 Sec. 6. RCW 31.12.565 and 2005 c 274 s 254 are each amended to 14 read as follows:

37 and pertinent to the investigation, and only after notifying the

1 affected credit union and members of the credit union who are named in 2 that part of the examination report, or other person examined, that the 3 report is being furnished to the officials, unless the officials 4 requesting the report obtain a waiver of the notice requirement for 5 good cause from a court of competent jurisdiction;

6 (c) The examined credit union or other person examined, solely for 7 its confidential use;

8 (d) The attorney general in his or her role as legal advisor to the

29 examination or investigation furnished under subsection (2) of this 30 section remain the property of the director and no person to whom 31 reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof may 32 disclose or make public the reports or information contained in the 33 reports except in published statistical information that does not 34 disclose the affairs of a person, except that nothing prevents the use
35 in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2)(b)
36 of this section.

37 (4) In a civil action in which the reports or information are 38 sought to be discovered or used as evidence, a party may, upon notice

6 director.

7 (5) This section does not apply to investigation reports prepared
8 by the director concerning an application for a new credit union or a 9 notice of intent to establish a branch of a credit union, except that 10 the director may adopt rules making portions of the reports

14 application.

15 (6) Any person who knowingly violates a provision of this section 16 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

17 Sec. 7. RCW 31.12.569 and 2001 c 83 s 30 are each amended to read

13 the (~~(credit union))~~ regulated entity has committed or is about to 14 commit:

15 (1) A material violation of law; or

16 (2) An unsafe or unsound practice.

17 Upon taking effect, the order may require the (~~(credit union))~~
18 regulated entity and its directors, supervisory committee members, 19 officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation 20 or practice and may require them to take affirmative action to correct 21 the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

22 Sec. 10. RCW 31.12.595 and 2001 c 83 s 34 are each amended to read

25 specified in RCW 31.12.585 is likely to cause an unsafe or unsound
26 condition at the credit union, the director may issue and serve a 27 temporary cease and desist order. The order may require the credit 28 union and its directors, supervisory committee members, officers, 29 employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or 30 practice and may require them to take affirmative action to correct the 31 conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

32 (2) With the temporary order, the director shall serve a notice of 33 charges and intent to issue a cease and desist order under RCW
34 31.12.585 in the matter.

35 (3) The temporary order becomes effective upon service on the

1 credit union and remains effective until completion of the
2 administrative proceedings under the notice issued under subsection (2)
3 of this section.

4 (4) Within ten days after a credit union has been served with a 5 temporary order, the credit union may apply to the superior court in 6 the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting 7 aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the 8 administrative proceedings under the notice issued under subsection (2)
9 of this section.

10 (5) In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a 11 temporary order, the director may apply to the superior court of the 12 county of the principal place of business of the credit union for an

14 injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or 15 threatened violation.

16 (6) For the purposes of this section, the principal place of 17 business of a foreign or out-of-state credit union is Thurston county.

23 the director's designee. To the extent the requirements of this 24 chapter are inconsistent with chapter 34.05 RCW, this chapter will 25 govern. The hearing may be held at such place as is designated by the 26 director. The hearing shall be private unless the director determines 27 that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after

1 (2) The conservator shall conduct the business of the credit union

5 limitation:

6 (a) Take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover
7 any assets or property of the credit union, including any claim or

9 union, and administer the same in his or her own name as conservator; 10 and

11 (b) File, prosecute, and defend any suit that has been filed or may 12 be filed by or against the credit union that is deemed by the 13 conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties or 16 to time as may be required by the director.

17 (3) All costs incident to conservatorship will be a charge against 19 may determine.

20 (4) If at any time the director determines that the credit union is 21 not in condition to continue business under the conservator in the 22 interest of its share account holders, depositors, or creditors, and 23 grounds exist under RCW 31.12.637, the director may proceed with 24 appointment of a liquidating agent or receiver in accordance with this 25 chapter.

26 (5) The director, the department and its employees, and third
27 parties acting as conservators are not subject to liability for actions

35 director may appoint the national credit union administration or other 36 qualified party as receiver. Upon appointment, the receiver is 37 authorized to act without bond. Upon acceptance of the appointment,

1 the receiver shall have and possess all the powers and privileges
2 provided by the laws of this state with respect to the receivership of 3 a credit union, and be subject to all the duties of and restrictions
4 applicable to such a receiver, except insofar as such powers,

6 provision of the federal credit union act.

7 Upon taking possession of the credit union, the receiver shall give 8 written notice to the directors of the credit union and to all persons 9 having possession of any assets of the credit union. No person with 10 knowledge of the taking of possession by the receiver shall have a lien
11 or charge for any payment advanced, clearance made, or liability 12 incurred against any of the assets of the credit union, after the 13 receiver takes possession, unless approved by the receiver.

26 fixed by the court, which may not be less than five or more than 27 fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice, to show cause 28 why the credit union should not be restored to the possession of its 29 assets. For the purposes of this section, the principal place of 30 business of a foreign or out-of-state credit union is Thurston county.

31 The court shall summarily hear and dismiss the complaint if it
32 finds that the receiver was appointed for cause. However, if the court 33 finds that no cause existed for appointment of the receiver, the court 34 shall require the receiver to restore the credit union to possession of 35 its assets and enjoin the director from further appointment of a 36 receiver for the credit union without cause.
