21 reappointment. The executive director must be admitted to practice law 22 in the state of Washington, and may be removed for cause. Compensation

25 (a) The executive director shall appoint attorneys admitted to 26 practice law in the state of Washington to act as administrative law 27 judges, and additional clerical, technical, and professional staff as 28 may be appropriate, and may contract for additional services as 29 necessary for the performance of the executive director's duties. The 3 accordance with section 3 of this act.

4 (d) The appropriation for the office of open records shall be a 5 separate line item recommended directly by the executive director.

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 42.56 RCW
7 to read as follows:

8 (1) Persons described in this subsection may file an appeal with 9 the office of open records.

10 (a) A person entitled to seek relief under RCW 42.56.550 may file 11 a written appeal with the office within thirty days of the date of the 12 agency's claim of exemption or the last production of a record on a 13 partial or installment basis. At any time before the production or 14 denial of records, a person entitled to seek relief under RCW 42.56.550 15 may file an appeal challenging the reasonable estimate of the time 16 required to respond to the request pursuant to RCW 42.56.520.

17 (b) A person entitled to seek relief under RCW 42.56.540 may file 18 a written appeal with the office within ten business days of the date 19 of the agency's notice of intended disclosure by an agency.

20 (c) A agency entitled to seek relief under RCW 42.56.540 may file 21 a written appeal with the office within thirty days of the date of the 22 agency's claim of exemption or the last production of a record on a 23 partial or installment basis, or within ten business days of the date 24 of the agency's notice of intended disclosure by another agency 25 possessing the requested public records.

26 (d) For persons or agencies seeking injunctive relief under RCW 27 42.56.540 the office may issue a temporary restraining order that 28 enjoins the agency from disclosure under this chapter until such time 29 the office renders a final order pursuant to this section.

30 (e) Any person or agency filing an appeal or intervening in an 31 appeal must pay the office a filing fee of thirty-five dollars. The 32 fee must be waived by order of an administrative law judge upon a 33 showing that the person filing the appeal is indigent.

34 (2)(a) The office of open records shall assign an administrative 35 law judge to review appeals and issue final orders granting or denying 36 relief under this chapter. At the discretion of the executive

1 director, an administrative law judge may confer with legal counsel and 2 other employees of the office who do not otherwise participate in the 3 case.

4 (b)(i) The administrative law judge may grant a timely request to 5 intervene in an appeal under this section if:

6 (A) A person is entitled to seek relief under RCW 42.56.540 or 7 42.56.550;

8 (B) No hearing has been held;

9 (C) The administrative law judge has not yet issued final order; 10 and

11 (D) The party seeking to intervene in an appeal offers information 12 that will assist with resolving the appeal without undue delay.

13 (ii) Copies of the written request to intervene in an appeal shall 14 be provided to all parties in the appeal by the person or agency 15 submitting the request. A decision by the administrative law judge to 16 grant or deny a request to intervene is not subject to judicial review.

17 (c) Unless a hearing is set, the administrative law judge shall 18 issue final order that must be mailed to the parties within thirty days 19 of receipt of the appeal filed with the office.

20 (d) The office shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW 21 prescribing procedures for an expedited review of an appeal with the 22 issuance of a final order in fewer than thirty days for circumstances 23 including but not limited to: Whether there is a clear legal issue 24 presented on appeal, undisputed facts, and an urgent need for 25 resolution that will be frustrated by delay. A decision by the office 26 to grant or deny an expedited review is not subject to judicial review.

27 (e) At any time before the office issues a final order, any person 28 or agency may submit a written request for a hearing. The 29 administrative law judge may order a hearing if further information 30 will be beneficial according to criteria established by rule adopted by 31 the office pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW. The order granting or 32 denying a hearing is not subject to judicial review. The 33 administrative law judge may extend the deadline for a final order 34 beyond thirty days in order to hold a hearing. The administrative law 35 judge must issue a final order within thirty days after the hearing.

36 (f) Upon setting a hearing, the administrative law judge shall set 37 a schedule for the submission of documents, testimony, or other 38 evidence in support of any party's position. The administrative law

1 judge may limit the nature and extent of admissible evidence for the 2 sufficiency of issuing a final order. The administrative law judge may 3 issue subpoenas and may enter protective orders. The administrative 4 law judge shall decide whether to permit the taking of depositions, the 5 requesting of admissions, and all other procedures authorized by rules 6 26 through 36 of the superior court civil rules. The administrative 7 law judge shall condition use of discovery on a showing of necessity 8 and unavailability by other means. The administrative law judge shall 9 consider: (i) Whether all parties are represented by counsel; (ii) 10 whether undue expense or delay in bringing the case to hearing will 11 result; (iii) whether the discovery will promote the orderly and prompt 12 conduct of the proceeding; and (iv) whether the interests of justice 13 will be promoted. Discovery orders, protective orders, and subpoenas 14 may be enforced by the office in a superior court in the county where 15 the hearing is conducted.

16 (g) The administrative law judge may accept or order the submission 17 of any records, or portions thereof, for in camera review. Records 18 reviewed in camera for appeals before the office are exempt from 19 disclosure under this chapter.

20 (h) Before issuing a final order, the office must require the 21 parties to an appeal to meet and confer for the purpose of 22 simplification or settlement of issues by agreement. The office may 23 order mediation where all parties agree to mediation for any issue.
24 The administrative law judge may stay appeals and time limits required 25 under this section pursuant to a mediation order for the duration of 26 the mediation.

27 (i) The office may not award any costs, attorneys' fees, or 28 penalties.

29 (j) The executive director may designate certain final orders as 30 precedents according to criteria established by rule adopted pursuant 31 to chapter 34.05 RCW. All other final orders are without precedent for 32 determining other cases involving similar facts or issues. All final 33 orders shall be made immediately and publicly available on the web site 34 of the office.

35 (3)(a) Appeals to the office of open records are not the exclusive 36 remedy for enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. Any person 37 may initiate an action in court under RCW 42.56.540 or 42.56.550.

1 However, if an appeal is filed first with the office, the office
2 retains primary jurisdiction.

3 (b) Subject to judicial review, the final orders of the 4 administrative law judges are binding on all parties to an appeal 5 before the office, and are enforceable in a superior court.

6 (c) Judicial review of a final order of the office must be filed 7 with a superior court within thirty days after the entry of the final 8 order, and venue shall be determined consistent with the provisions of 9 RCW 42.56.550. Judicial review of a final order of the office by a 10 superior court shall be de novo.

11 (d) The office may not be named as a defendant for any judicial 12 review of a final order to a superior court.

13 (e) A superior court may award a person who prevails on judicial 14 review against an agency all costs, including reasonable attorneys' 15 fees, and penalties in accordance with RCW 42.56.550(4). However, a 16 superior court may not award any costs or attorneys' fees incurred or 17 accrued for appeals before the office.

18 Sec. 4. RCW 42.56.550 and 2005 c 483 s 5 and 2005 c 274 s 288 are 19 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

20 (1) Upon the motion of any person having been denied an opportunity 21 to inspect or copy a public record by an agency, the superior court in 22 the county in which a record is maintained may require the responsible 23 agency to show cause why it has refused to allow inspection or copying 24 of a specific public record or class of records. The burden of proof 25 shall be on the agency to establish that refusal to permit public 26 inspection and copying is in accordance with a statute that exempts or 27 prohibits disclosure in whole or in part of specific information or 28 records.

29 (2) Upon the motion of any person who believes that an agency has 30 not made a reasonable estimate of the time that the agency requires to 31 respond to a public record request, the superior court in the county in 32 which a record is maintained may require the responsible agency to show 33 that the estimate it provided is reasonable. The burden of proof shall 34 be on the agency to show that the estimate it provided is reasonable.

35 (3) Judicial review of all agency actions taken or challenged under 36 RCW 42.56.030 through 42.56.520 shall be de novo. Courts shall take 37 into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination

1 of public records is in the public interest, even though such 2 examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public 3 officials or others. Courts may examine any record in camera in any 4 proceeding brought under this section. The court may conduct a hearing 5 based solely on affidavits.

6 (4) Any person who prevails against an agency in any action in the 7 courts seeking the right to inspect or copy any public record or the 8 right to receive a response to a public record request within a 9 reasonable amount of time shall be awarded all costs, including 10 reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such legal 11 action. In addition, it shall be within the discretion of the court to 12 award such person an amount not less than five dollars and not to 13 exceed one hundred dollars for each day that he or she was denied the 14 right to inspect or copy said public record. However, in no event may 15 a court award a penalty unless such person received a final order from 16 the office of open records before prevailing against an agency in court 17 pursuant to this subsection.

18 (5) For actions under this section against counties, the venue
19 provisions of RCW 36.01.050 apply.

20 (6) Actions under this section must be filed within one year of the 21 agency's claim of exemption or the last production of a record on a 22 partial or installment basis.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. RCW 42.56.530 (Review of agency denial) and 24 1992 c 139 s 10 are each repealed.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 and 3 through 5 of this act take 26 effect January 1, 2011.
