

HB 1531 - DIGEST

Directs the department of labor and industries to require applicants for registration and renewal who perform locksmith services to complete a fingerprint-based background check through the Washington state patrol criminal identification system and through the federal bureau of investigation.