

HB 1672 - DIGEST

Requires the public baccalaureate institutions of higher education, within existing resources, to annually administer the collegiate learning assessment to a sample of students attending at least half time. Services and activities fees shall be waived or rebated for all students who participate in the testing for the entire academic year in which they were tested.