

HB 1923 - DIGEST

Finds that any increase in the sales and use tax to balance the 2009-2011 biennium budget must first be used to reduce state property taxes.

Declares an intent to ensure that any increase in the sales and use tax will be used to reduce state property taxes before providing additional tax revenue to the general fund.