

HB 1975 - DIGEST

Requires the office of the superintendent of public instruction to develop criteria for extending the use of school impact fees from six to ten years. This extension must require an evaluation for each respective school board of the appropriateness of the extension.