

HB 3164 - DIGEST

Reaffirms that households may collect rainwater without a water right.

Authorizes the department of ecology to prohibit new systems for the capture, storage, and use of rainwater in a specific locality if it is determined that existing water rights or streamflows would be impaired.