

SB 5068 - DIGEST

Finds that the number of passenger complaints about the airline industry has increased significantly.

Declares that the legislature is committed to airline passenger policies that put the safety of all passengers first and foremost, while not imposing unrealistic economic burdens that adversely affect airline profitability or create exorbitant ticket price increases.

Establishes the office of the airline consumer advocate in the attorney general's office to assist customers in resolving problems with airline carriers.